
English as a Second Language - Non Credit

English as a Second Language Certificate of Competency

The ESL Certificate of Competency is designed to prepare students to communicate, write, and read in the English language. Students will have an opportunity to show their employers and future employers that they have an understanding and knowledge of the English language.

Program student learning outcomes:

1. Students will verbally communicate, by using appropriate beginning level grammar, vocabulary, organization, and clear pronunciation.
2. Students will carry a conversation based on a contemporary issue and will present new information to the class.
3. Students will develop a paragraph using lower-intermediate level grammar.
4. Students will create a presentation about their background, job skills, and educational experiences.
